Classes are designed one on one, 3 hours of classroom with teacher: Mon-Fri

Practice Spanish with the ladies of the kitchen (women & men if interested) cooking, making tortillas, learning recipes of Honduran dishes.

Practice Spanish with the wood carving teacher (men and women if interested)

Students make a trip to the Souvenir Market to practice using vocabulary using numbers and questions to buy goods.

Practice Spanish with the girls and staff from OLRM on a daily basis.

Students are encouraged to use the weekend to visit famous areas of Honduras such as Pulhapanzak, The Mayan Ruins, Bay Islands, Lake Yojoa, and the North Coast Beaches. All of these places are easy to visit on the weekend or you may use the weekend to participate in activities with the school or Our Little Roses.

This program is designed to give a better understanding of the culture and language of Latin American and particularly of Honduras.
